OBJECTIVE

Knowledge is something which is not meant for hoarding back, the potential of knowledge is immense and ceaseless, hence should be acknowledged. It multiplies itself once spread or shared and I as an individual believe the same. I aim at educating my students in a certain way which will imbibe in them critical as well as creative ways of cognition. Besides, I understand the utmost significance of co curricular activities therefore, my goal also includes engaging them with such activities. I look forward to contribute towards an all round growth and development of today's youth as well as towards the integrity of the educational institution.
