Name of the Resource Person	Ms. Asmita Pawar, Social worker, Centre for Youth Development Activity (CYDA).
Number of Participants	60

Brief Report

The NSS Department organized events for Vigilance awareness during the week. A session on Role of women in Social work was organised on 31st October 2020 at 8.15 am. The resource person for the session was our alumna Ms. Asmita Pawar, Social worker, Centre for Youth Development Activity (CYDA). Asmita has completed her MSW from Karve Institute of Social Services. She highlighted the point during her talk that though it may seem difficult for women to undertake social due to the tough schedules, environment and safety concerns, there is no discrimination against males or females in the area of social work. Both genders are given equal opportunities. She also discussed the avenues in social work like counselling, rehabilitation etc

Day and Date	8th March 2021
Time	12 noon
Venue	A.V.Room
Name of the Resource Person	NA
Number of Participants	30

Brief Report

A session of मनमोकळ्या गप्पा was arranged for female staff members to commemorate international women's Day 2021. During this interactive session female staff members shared their feelings and struggles of being a women in today's society. This session was followed by a fun group competition session on उखाणे , (a small couplet famously used by women to call out their husband's name in public gatherings) where the teams were given topics on which they had to make fun couplets on the topics given. The team with the highest number and wittiest उखाणे won the competition. This fun session helped the female staff members bond amongst themselves , express their inner most anxieties to friends and celebrate the real essence of womanhood through sharing and building a good camaraderie with co-workers.
