Report:

The NSS Department organized events for Vigilance awareness during the week. The oath taking activity was conducted every day as per the guidelines of SPPU.

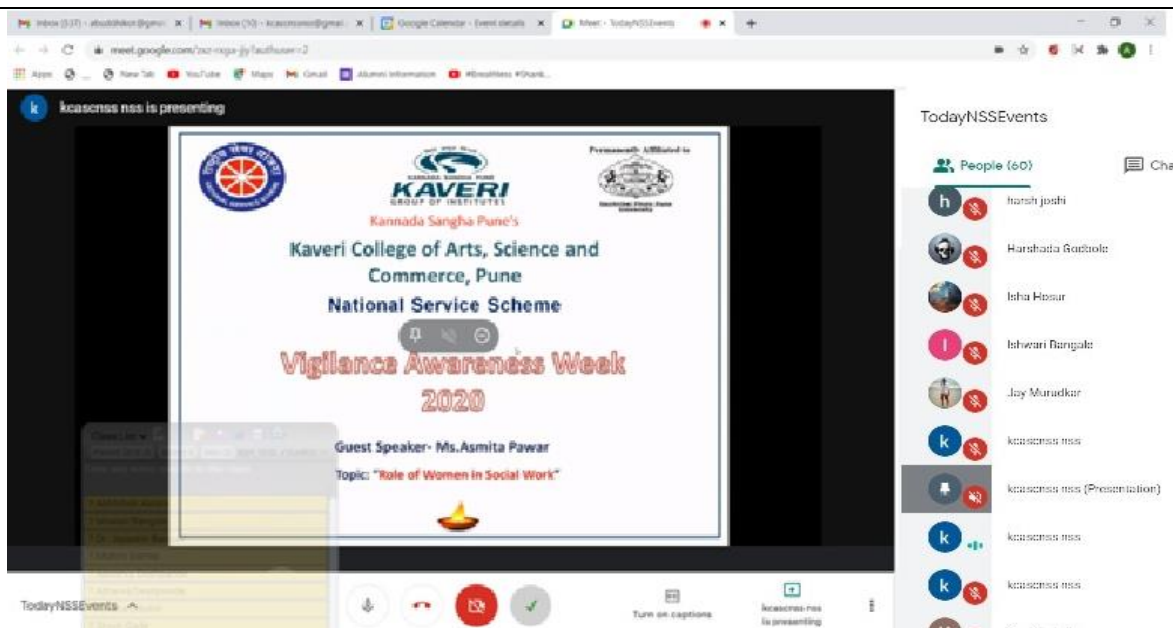

Also, a session on Role of women in social work was organised on 31st October 2020. The resource person for the session was our alumni Ms. Asmita Pawar, Social worker, Centre for Youth Development Activity (CYDA). Asmita has completed her MSW from Karve Institute of Social Services.

She highlighted the point during her talk that though it may seem difficult for women to undertake social due to the tough schedules, environment and safety concerns, there is no discrimination against males or females in the area of social work. Both genders are given equal opportunities.

She gave inputs through her personal journey into social work, her mother's encouragement towards her pursuing a career in social work, etc.

She also discussed the avenues in social work like counselling, rehabilitation etc. She also encouraged the students to think of social work as a career option. She put an emphasis on the fact that in spite of working for several hours in the corporate sector this profession is the only one which gives maximum satisfaction to the mind and soul.

Total 60 students and faculty member actively participated in the Vigilance awareness activities.
