Name of the Activity: National Level Conference on Mental Health and Economic Perspective

Date: 12 February 2022

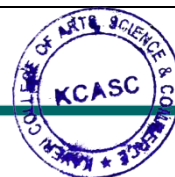

Report:

Kannada Sangha Pune's Kaveri College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Pune in association with Central University of Haryana organised a One Day National Level Conference on Mental Health & Economic Perspective on 12 February 2022, in association with SkillSlate Foundation, Pune.

With the objective of understanding how addressing vital aspects like policies and perspectives related to mental health can be a precursor for enhancing national wealth and prosperity and also with the objective of spreading awareness, this conference was arranged. The session witnessed the gracious presence of illustrious personalities from the field of academics and different organizations associated with the area related to mental health like: Mr. Vijay Kanhekar (Hon. Member, Advisory Committee, Divyang Act, 2018, Maharashtra Founder, MGSS), Prof. Tankeshwar Kumar (Hon. Vice Chancellor, Central University of Haryana), Mrs. Archana Deshpande (Founder, Manah Prabodh), Ms. Deepti Panhalkar (Founder, Mind Spa), Dr. Sunita Tanwar (Faculty, Dept. of Management Studies Central University of Haryana), Mr. Ameya Agrawal (Founder, SkillSlate Foundation, Pune), etc.

Prof. Dr. Tankeshwar Kumar graced the conference as the Chief Guest. During his address to the audience, he mentioned that in the backdrop of increasing suicide cases, depression, mental illness, it is important to spread awareness regarding the significance of positive mental health. He appreciated the efforts taken by the organizers in this regard. He expressed that, these days, anyone or everyone could need therapy based on mental health and stability. Ms. Malati Kalmadi (Hon. Secretary, Kannada Sangha, Pune) highlighted on the aspect that due to the pandemic there are increasing cases of issues related to mental health. And it is very important to be vocal about mental well being. She emphasized that there should be integration of body, mind and intellect so that there is movement towards spirituality and holistic upbringing. She graced the occasion as the Guest of Honour. Mr. Vijay Kanhekar, in his address, spoke on the changing perspectives towards mental illness and mental retardation. He also shared about the various provisions made by the Government, various Acts, and also spoke on significance and thoughtful implementations of schemes like 'Niramaya'. He shared very informative information regarding the technical reservations, provisions, and features regarding mental health. He graced the occasion as the Guest of Honour.

Mrs. Archana guided and spread awareness about various mental health related aspects like global perspective and economic budget, policy provisions related to mental health in India, need for changing mindsets, initiatives to be taken at social level, etc. She briefed the participants about core strategies and goals of WHO regarding mental health and disorders. She also drew attention to the fact that with proper medical treatment, non-judgemental listening and understanding of the state of mind of the victim is of immense importance. She said that it is a remarkable change to notice the journey, from how inhuman treatment was earlier given to mentally unstable people, to the new era where human rights are applied to them and provisions are made for their betterment. She also expressed satisfaction towards the National Digital Health Ecosystem Budget, National Tele Mental Health Programme, etc. She proposed a desire about what steps the State & Central Government can take regarding mental health. She mentioned that some initiatives like having “Jan ki Baat” must be taken up in order to talk openly upon mental health. She said that it's also necessary to acknowledge and appreciate the changing paradigms in mental health from exclusion to inclusion, etc. People nowadays talk openly about mental health issues, and considering to take the necessary actions is a good sign indeed. Ms. Archana introduced the audience how social media can be effectively used to psycho educate people on a greater platform. She emphasised on the point that educational institutes too should work for focussing on innovation & skill building with academic excellence. She also encouraged the audience to contribute towards creating a ripple effect at the grassroot level. Towards the end of the session, was a Q&A session, in which participants spontaneously came up with the questions, to which Ms. Archana satisfactorily answered. This was followed with an address by Ms. Deepti Panhalkar, who shared tips regarding practicing positive mental health. She added that understanding one's thinking pattern by oneself is very important. She discussed how negative things are part of everyone's life, but one must learn to create positivity. She also assigned the audience one real time activity to practice to overcome negativity or depressions. She said depression does not happen overnight, it takes many long term factors which result in causing unstable mental health or depression. Again this session was followed by Q&A. Participants and Ms. Deepti really had a good interaction.

A closing remark was presented by Dr. Sunita Tanwar, who briefly summarised the session and added that the pandemic had shown both the sides-one of stress, depression, etc; as well as many opportunities to learn things, as people now have started to openly talk on the issues of mental health or imbalance. She appreciated the efforts taken by the organising team in planning and execution of such a distinguished valuable session. Dr. Muckta Karmarkar (Vice Principal Kaveri College) highlighted the importance of building mental strength for a better mental health.

The conference witnessed around 1000 participants across India from all walks of life, viz., homemakers, students, teachers, professionals working in the area of mental health, other working and non-working professional. The conference was assisted by Advisory Partners - MGSS, District Disability Rehab Centre, Pune and by Academic Partners - MIT Arts,

Name of the Activity: International Conference on Women Empowerment and Challenging Barriers

Date: 8 March 2022

Report:

Kaveri College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Pune in association with SkillSlate Foundation, Pune had organized an international conference on the occasion of Women's Day on 8th March 2022, Tuesday regarding the topic- Women's Empowerment and Challenging Barriers-An Experience Sharing.

Dr. Jayashri Bangali briefly introduced the first guest of the session- Dr. Vinitha Guptan- Vice Chancellor, Saito University College, Malaysia. Dr. Vinitha very graciously began the session by narrating the story of her life in exceptional style and manner. She shared how she faced adversities and hurdles in life and how she overcame them. She insisted on indulging a thinking in the audience that "what comes to me, belongs to me". She also emphasized on the fact that we live in a society and we have to walk with everyone, rather we need everyone who comes in our life and we must learn to make best use of every possible person and circumstances. She focused on the idea that with proper will power, determination, and social support, one can easily achieve the desired goals. She inspired and motivated the women to keep going in all kinds of circumstances by sharing her experiences in this session.

The second guest speaker, Dr. Meena Rajesh- Vice Chancellor, G H Raisonni University, Saikheda(MP) shared her experiences regarding personal life as well as career making journey and left the listeners awestruck with her achievements. She majorly talked about the barriers women face in multidimensional ways in many aspects as well as the perceptions about the women the society beholds. She expressed that the barriers and adversities in her life made her more strong and capable. She mentioned that she feels immense satisfaction and happiness while looking back to her successful journey from mere Assistant Professor to Vice Chancellor. She concluded with a very remarkable statement: "Change the changeable, Accept the unchangeable, And Remove yourself from unacceptable."

The third speaker, Dr. Jaskiran Kaur- Pro Vice Chancellor, Lingaya's Vidyapeeth, Haryana talked briefly about her experiences while studying, her first job in Singapore, Family Balancing, etc. She also talked about financial issues, time management skills, support systems, and many more things one has to think about while on a journey towards success. She inspired everyone by sharing her exceptional and remarkable journey.

The fourth speaker, Kakoli Sen- Pro Vice Chancellor, IILM University, Gurgaon, very persistently mentioned that there is no need to empower women as women are already the basic source of power, they possess all the strength within, and that there is only the need to support and appreciate them from time to time as it becomes little unmanageable for women to get everything done perfectly at a time single handedly. She also said that it's amazing to see women making their identity in all the existing fields and they do not lack in anything.

PRINCIPAL
Kannada Sangha Pune
Kaveri College of Arts, Science & Commerce

Mr. Lalit Gandhi- President, MACCIA, Mumbai, another chief guest to the session welcomed all the honorable Guest Speakers and appreciated them for their unique way of dealing with adversities and successful achievements and experience sharing. He insisted that the existence and efficiency of women should not be celebrated just for a day but for the entire year and all the time. He talked briefly about Gender perspectives in education and other efficiently sensible topics. He emphasized the fact that changing the mindsets of men as well as of women is necessary to bring about more reform in empowering women and their success.

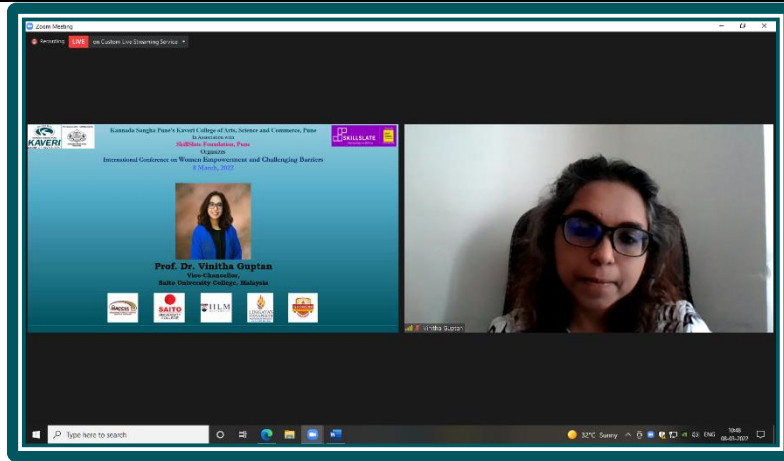

Mrs. Malati Kalmadi expressed that she felt overwhelmed with the session taken by all the speakers, she thanked everyone for their remarkable experience sharing and appreciated the huge response by the audience to the session organized on occasion of Women's Day. She discussed majorly ironical problems in society like dowry, illiteracy, etc, and gave noble messages to women.

The second session began with introduction of the Guest of honor for the technical session- Ms. Vasanti Joshi-Assistant Professor SNTD College, Pune. Ms. Vasanti has traveled 4500+ kms on cycle from Kanyakumari to Leh, which is very exceptional and indeed an unique achievement. Ms. Vasanti began her session by talking about the history and origin of International Women's Day. She expressed immense satisfaction for the fact that nowadays women are not lacking behind in any single field and have managed to make their identity on every possible platform just like men, rather a step ahead of men. Throughout the session, she shared the needed information and adventurous as well as thrilling experiences of her prior journeys executed successfully on cycle which ranged from Himalayas, Narmada Parikrama, Pune to Kanyakumari, Kanyakumari to Leh, etc. She also expressed gratitude and informed the audience about the Jigar Club and Cycle Pratishtan for their consistent co-operation and support. She very fondly emphasized on breaking the bias. She made the session very informative, motivating and enlightening for women.

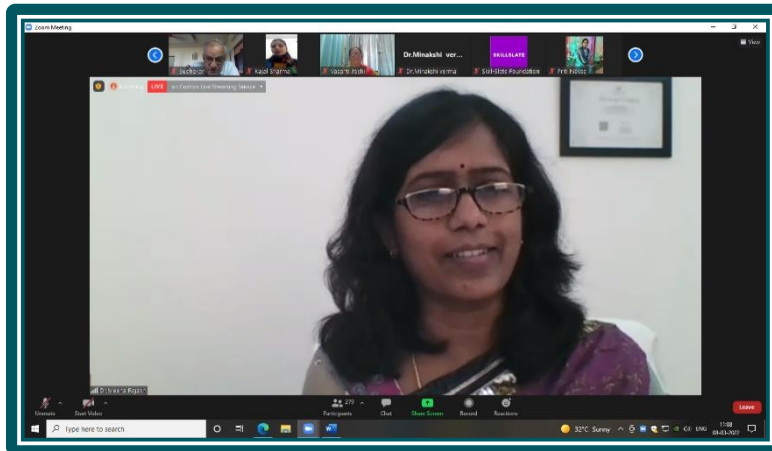

It was indeed a successful event which was attended by hundreds of participants on the platform of zoom as well as YouTube live.
