Reading Skills	Level	Your Performance
Reading	Intermediate	Test takers who receive a score at the INTERMEDIATE level, as you did, typically understand academic texts in English that require a wide range of reading abilities, although their understanding of certain parts of the texts is limited. Test takers who receive a score at the INTERMEDIATE level typically <ul style="list-style-type: none">• have a good command of common academic vocabulary but still have some difficulty with high-level vocabulary;• have a very good understanding of grammatical structure;• can understand and connect information, make appropriate inferences, and synthesize information in a range of texts but have more difficulty when the vocabulary is high level and the text is conceptually dense;• can recognize the expository organization of a text and the role that specific information serves within a larger text but have some difficulty when these are not explicit or easy to infer from the text; and• can abstract major ideas from a text but have more difficulty doing so when the text is conceptually dense.

Listening Skills	Level	Your Performance
Listening	Intermediate	Test takers who receive a score at the INTERMEDIATE level, as you did, typically understand conversations and lectures in English that present a wide range of listening demands. These demands can include difficult vocabulary (uncommon terms or colloquial or figurative language), complex grammatical structures, and/or abstract or complex ideas. However, lectures and conversations that require the listener to make sense of unexpected or seemingly contradictory information may present some difficulty. When listening to conversations and lectures like these, test takers at the INTERMEDIATE level typically can <ul style="list-style-type: none">• understand explicitly stated main ideas and important details, especially if they are reinforced, but may have difficulty understanding main ideas that must be inferred or important details that are not reinforced;• understand how information is being used (for example, to provide support or describe a step in a complex process);• recognize how pieces of information are connected (for example, in a cause-and-effect relationship);• understand, though perhaps not consistently, ways that speakers use language for purposes other than to give information (for example, to emphasize a point, express agreement or disagreement, or convey intentions indirectly); and• synthesize information from adjacent parts of a lecture or conversation and make correct inferences on the basis of that information, but may have difficulty synthesizing information from separate parts of a lecture or conversation.

Speaking Skills		Level*	Your Performance
Speaking about Familiar Topics	Fair		Your responses indicate you are able to speak in English about your personal experiences and opinions in a mostly clear and coherent manner. Your speech is mostly clear with only occasional errors. Grammar and vocabulary are somewhat limited and include some errors. At times, the limitations prevent you from elaborating fully on your ideas, but they do not seriously interfere with overall communication.
Speaking about Campus Situation	Good		Your responses indicate an ability to speak effectively in English about reading material and conversations typically encountered by university students. Overall, your responses are clear and coherent, with only occasional errors of pronunciation, grammar, or vocabulary.
Speaking about Academic Course Content	Fair		Your responses demonstrate that you are able to speak in English about academic reading and lecture material, with only minor communication problems. For the most part, your speech is clear and easy to understand. However, some problems with pronunciation and intonation may occasionally cause difficulty for the listener. Your use of grammar and vocabulary is adequate to talk about the topics, but some ideas are not fully developed or are inaccurate.
Writing Skills		Level*	Your Performance
Writing based on Reading and Listening	Good		You responded well to the task, relating the lecture to the reading. Weaknesses, if you have any, might have to do with <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • slight imprecision in your summary of some of the main points and/or • use of English that is occasionally ungrammatical or unclear.
Writing based on Knowledge and Experience	Fair		You expressed ideas with reasons, examples, and details, but your response indicated weaknesses such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • you may not provide enough specific support and development for your main points; • your ideas may be difficult to follow because of how you organize your essay or because of the language you use to connect your ideas; and/or • grammatical mistakes or vague/incorrect uses of words may make the writing difficult to understand.

This score report provides four section scores and a total score. An analysis of your strengths and weaknesses in English is included. The level pertaining to each skill should not be generalized beyond the performance on this test. Skill levels and their associated descriptions are not intended for use by institutions as part of their admissions criteria and will not be shared unless you grant permission.

Information About Scores: The following scaled scores are reported for the TOEFL iBT test. A total score is not reported when one or more sections have not been administered. These scores have the following ranges:

Sections	Scaled Scores
Reading	0-30
Listening	0-30
Speaking	0-30
Writing	0-30
Total Score	0-120

Institution Codes: The code numbers shown on page 1 of this report are the ones you selected before you took the test. If any institution code you selected is missing, it was incorrect and the TOEFL® Program was unable to send a score report to that institution.

Additional information about TOEFL iBT scores can be found on the Test Takers section of the TOEFL website at www.ets.org/toefl.

* Skill levels for speaking and writing individual skills are estimates of performance at the item level. The total writing and speaking scaled scores and ranges are more accurate. Therefore it is not appropriate to combine the individual skill levels. Doing so may lead to apparent inconsistencies between the diagnostic feedback and reported writing and speaking scores.

IMPORTANT NOTE TO SCORE USERS: This PDF score report was downloaded and printed by the test taker.
