BBA/BBA IB

Exam Committee

Continuous Evaluation Pattern

1. All the subjects of FY, SY, and TY have an internal exam of 30 marks which are converted to 15.

2. All the subjects of FY, SY,TY have 3 assignments per subject for 20 marks each converted to 5 marks each

3. Therefore, internal (15 marks) + assignments (15 marks) = 30 marks

4. Tutorial =20 marks for specified subjects.

5. Project = 50 marks (SY and TY) for specified subjects.

6. External exam = 70 marks

7. External exam for subjects with tutorial = 50 marks

8. External exam for subjects with project = 50 marks.

Evaluation Process

Components of Evaluation

1. Internal Exam (10 Marks)
   - The internal exam is conducted for 20 marks and converted to a weightage of 10 marks.
   - It tests students' understanding of key concepts and their ability to apply theoretical knowledge.

2. Class Test (10 Marks)
   - A class test is conducted for 20 marks, which is also converted to a weightage of 10 marks.

3. Activity (10 Marks)
   - This component encourages active participation and continuous learning through a variety of academic activities, including:
     - Home Assignments
     - Tutorials
     - Seminars
     - Presentations
     - Group Discussions

Final Evaluation

- The final score out of 30 marks is derived by adding the following:
  - Internal Exam (10 marks)
  - Class Test (10 marks)
  - Activity (10 marks)
